GATHER™ PUBLIC SPACE

When people come together in a public setting, they may want to talk as friends, share ideas as co-workers, relax and pause for a moment, or concentrate and get work done. Gather supports all of these types of activities with a variety of furniture solutions.

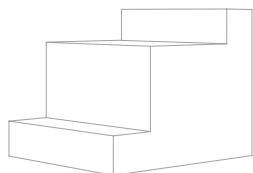

- Back-to-back Rise accommodates multiple people and groups and the postures they take in an efficient footprint.
- Belong table paired with easy-to-move Scooch seating supports informal and impromptu interactions that happen spontaneously throughout the day.
- Linger with lounge-height All-Around table provides a place to relax or get work done away from the flow of traffic.
- Mind-Share creates a more private micro-environment for a small group or an efficient meeting space for a larger group.
